------------------	---------	--

Registration of the Sale and Purchase Agreement:	In accordance with Dubai Law No. 13 of 2008 and Executive Counsel Decree No.6 of 2010, it is the obligation of the Developer/Property Owner to ensure that the sale and purchase agreement for the Property is registered in the Interim Real Estate Register if the Property is purchased prior to the Completion Date (i.e. off-plan), and should be registered in the permanent register for which a Title Deed will be issued by the Dubai Land Department once the Completion Date has been reached and a Completion Certificate has been issued. Any sale and purchase agreement which is not registered in the applicable registers as directed by the Dubai Land Department will be considered void.
Caution:	Although the arrangements described in this Statement have been formulated by the Developer based on its current understanding as to how the Project (precinct) will operate and how the Unit will be delivered to the Owner/Purchaser, changes to such arrangements may be necessary as a result of changes to the Applicable Laws, contractual arrangements the Developer has with other parties or if the Developer considers that changes to such arrangements are in the best interests of the Project.
General:	1. For the purpose of satisfying the Developer's disclosure obligations set out herein, it is intended the Developer will advise you of the matters not disclosed in the preceding paragraphs as soon as those matters have been finalised and confirmed by the Developer. 2. The SPA shall set out various changes the Developer is entitled to make to the Unit and the Project, including to the materials, Unit specifications and sizes of Units, common areas and carparks, rights of way and easements and various other matters. Any changes to the Unit or the Project pursuant to the SPA may be the subject of subsequent disclosure. 3. The Governance Documents, which will be prepared by the Developer, may comprise a scheme which creates separate components for the Project based on the different permitted uses within the Project. Accordingly, the Governance Documents may put in place special requirements to govern the use, management and administration of different parts of the Project and the manner in which costs are shared (and which may not necessarily be equally apportioned between the different use elements of the Project). You will not have any right to object to or challenge the final structure chosen by the Developer or the way in which that structure may be reflected in the Governance Documents. 4. The Developer reserves the right to update, amend or add to this Disclosure Statement by additional disclosures from time to time and such update, amendment or additional disclosure shall be read together with this Disclosure Statement to determine the overall disclosure made pursuant to the JOP Law.
